

Misc. Docket No. 92-190

ORDER of the Supreme Court of Texas

Amendments to Rules 7.05 and 7.07
of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure

It is the order of the Supreme Court that the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure be amended, as follows:

The first line of Rule 7.05 shall read:

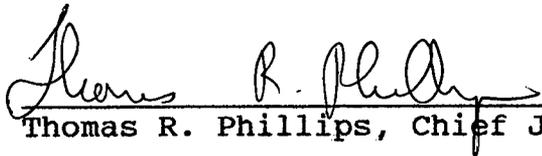

Four [~~Six~~] members constitute a quorum of the Board of Disciplinary Appeals, except that a panel of three members may hear appeals and such other matters as may be specifically delegated to it by the Board of Disciplinary Appeals.

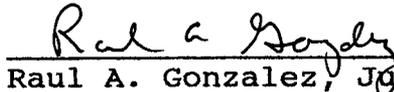

Rule 7.07 shall read:

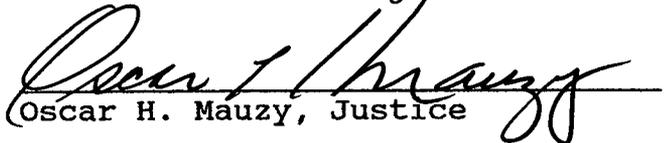

Board of Disciplinary Appeals members shall refrain from taking part in any matter before the Board of Disciplinary Appeals [~~proceeding~~] in which recusal or disqualification would be required of a judge similarly situated.

These amendments shall be effective immediately.

In Chambers, this 23rd day of June, 1992.
